Travel Notes

Ibiza

Check-in opens at 2:00 PM at the meeting point, located at Ibiza Marina, with boarding available from 5:00 PM on Saturday. After completing the quick boarding procedures and stocking up on provisions, we will set sail at sunset for our first night at anchor in one of the picturesque bays near the marina. The evening will begin with a dinner on board, accompanied by some music to help everyone get to know the crews of the other boats.

Accommodation: Ibiza

Espalmador

After a leisurely breakfast and a refreshing swim, we will weigh anchor and head towards Espalmador, a small island just 150 meters from Formentera, still maintaining its untouched beauty. This day will be entirely dedicated to relaxation: you can go ashore to explore its endless white sandy beaches and finally dive into its crystal-clear waters. To end the day in style, enjoy a sunset aperitif on the beach with all the flotilla participants, accompanied by some music. We will spend the night at anchor and have dinner together on board.

Cala Comte

This morning, we will set sail towards Ibiza! We will anchor at Cala d'Hort, a small beach with crystal-clear waters, backed by steep cliffs offering a stunning view of the Es Vedrá and Es Vedranell islets. After lunch on board, we will head further north to the renowned Cala Comte, often considered one of the most beautiful beaches on the island. This paradise spot is perfect for swimming in its clear waters and exploring the rocky seabed in some areas. At sunset, we will head ashore for an aperitif at one of the beach bars or seaside venues.

Cala Vadella

Today, we will sail along the west coast of Ibiza to reach the picturesque Cala Vadella. This small, peaceful beach with golden sand is surrounded by pine-clad hills, creating a stunning contrast with the crystal-clear waters of the sea. We will stop here for a scenic lunch before heading to Cala Porroig, a quiet cove surrounded by cliffs. After a sunset aperitif, we will head ashore with the tender to spend an unforgettable evening at one of the beautiful beach bars.

Formentera

After breakfast and a refreshing swim, we will weigh anchor to head towards Formentera. After a brief stop at the marina for water refills, you will head ashore and have the opportunity to rent a scooter to explore the island. Meanwhile, your skippers will move towards the stunning Cala Saona, a bay with crystal-clear waters and coral-colored sand, which rivals the famous beaches of the Caribbean! The skippers will be waiting for you here to enjoy dinner on board and spend the night either at anchor or ashore at one of the charming beach bars.

Formentera

After a swim in the crystal-clear waters of Cala Saona and a hearty breakfast, we will set sail for a short trip to the beautiful Plajta de Migjorin, where we will relax and have lunch together, accompanied by some music. In the afternoon, we will head a little further south to a stunning white sandy beach, where we will head ashore at sunset and party late into the night at the Blue Bar!

Accommodation: Formentera

Ibiza

After a short one-hour sail, we will reach the eastern coast of Formentera in the morning, where we will anchor in a cove with a view of the picturesque Torre de Punta Prima and the beach of Es Pujols. After a morning of swimming, relaxing, and enjoying the sunshine, we will say our goodbyes and head back to the departure port in Ibiza. The evening will continue with a group dinner at a restaurant in the city, followed by a night of partying at one of the island's most famous nightclubs, dancing until dawn.
