Itinerary

Travel Notes

Riserva Regionale di Punta Aderci

The tour begins at 4:15 PM with the meeting point at Lido di Casalbordino, the ideal starting location for this bicycle excursion. Departure is at 4:30 PM along a scenic cycling path that runs alongside the sea, immediately immersing participants in the unique atmosphere of the Costa dei Trabocchi. After a few kilometers, the paved road is left behind to follow a dirt trail along the Sinello River, passing through vineyards and picturesque natural landscapes. The route continues toward the Punta Aderci Regional Nature Reserve, where participants can admire the famous trabocco and enjoy spectacular views of the surrounding mountains. Next, the tour reaches Punta Penna Lighthouse, the second tallest lighthouse in Italy, majestically overlooking the promontory. On the return trip, there is a stop at one of the reserve's farms for a tasting of local typical products, offering a moment of relaxation and authentic flavors. The tour concludes around 8:00 PM, with the sunset illuminating the coastal return path.
